

What Should I Do?

Describe Problem and Solution

Children understand that when they have a problem, they want to work it out. When they find a solution, they feel better. Many stories contain some type of problem for the characters to solve. Children learn that just as they feel better when their problems are solved, stories feel complete when the character's problem is solved.

Look What We're Learning

Comprehension

- Describe the problem and solution of a story
- Listen to stories, plays, and poems and talk about their meaning
- Explain how a story connects to personal experience

Social-Emotional

- Name emotions displayed by others

Vocabulary

problem solution