

I Know My Name and Your Name Too

Recognize Names

Children love to hear and see their names and play different games with them. Because children's names are very important to them, they quickly learn to identify their own names. They also like to identify their friends' names. When they do this, they reinforce alphabet knowledge and begin to attach sounds to letters.

Look What We're Learning

Concepts About Print

- Recognize own name in print
- Recognize the names of friends and family in print

Vocabulary

name
capital letters first